FOUR LOTS,

Not building lots that is in the general acceptance of the world, though a selection from any of these lots is a splendid foundation on which to build a picture collection. It's a mid-summer sale. Prices are very low. We sold a great many pictures last week and have decided to continue the sale.

50 C. FOR LOT 1.—A nice little line of artistically framed pictures. Figures, Heads, Landscapes, etc. Not a picture in this line that is not worth twice the money.

98 C. FOR LOT 2.—Large number of subjects. Good, substantial frames, up to date pictures. See them.

$1.50 FOR LOT 3.—White and gold. Antique oak or burnished gold frames of all styles. Nice line of subjects. Great values.

$1.98 FOR LOT 4.—You have been paying $3.50 and $4 for pictures not their equal. Large, handsome frames. Very choice subjects. All in our East Window. Prices marked in plain figures on each lot.

Why H. S. Stout Succeeds.

Here are a few reasons why H. S. Stout has succeeded in building up the largest tailoring business in Paris:

FIRST—He recognized the fact that five years ago that the only day of big profits and small sales was past.

SECOND—He cuts the price of tailor-made garments at least 40 PER CENT.

THIRD—He kept up the quality of his materials, his styles and his workmanship.

FOURTH—He always does as he advertised.

AS A RESULT.

As a result of this system he has built up a large trade that appreciates the fact that they save twenty dollars on a single suit or overcoat. "Many customers at a small profit rather than a few customers at a big profit," says H. S. Stout.

If you want credit, your high-price tailor gladly extends it, for he makes you pay dearly for it in the end.

Why not turn over a new leaf—wear the best, save money, by giving H. S. Stout a trial?

He makes the Finest Imported Suits for $30.00 AND $35.00.

Here is one of those who are either so prejudiced against all advertised remedies, or have become discouraged at the failure of other medicines to help them, and who will succumb to the grim destroyer without knowing of the wonderful value of Foley's Honey and Tar for all Throat and Lung troubles.

PARIS' FREE STREET FAIR,

August 17th and 18th, 1898.

ARRANGEMENTS are being rapidly concluded to make Paris' Free Street Fair a big success. A fine program and premium list are insured. THE NEWS prints the program and premium list on eight page of this issue. Be sure and read the premium list from beginning to end—there is something to interest you, and maybe some easy money for you to secure by contesting for the premium. There is no admission charged to the fair and no fee to contest for the premiums—everything free. A good time is in store for everybody who comes to the fair as it will be a novelty in the way of fairs—nothing like it ever before in Kentucky. The citizens are lending earnest efforts to make everything pleasant for the large crowd of visitors expected. Big, little, old and young will find something to amuse them.

Country people will find it convenient to come in and do their shopping and see the fair, too. With a free fair and free toll you will have a bit of money left to spend and the Paris merchants can give you value received for any cash you wish to part with. Paris merchants deserve your patronage for they are giving this free entertainment without any cost to you.

Don't forget to read over the premium list on eighth page.

THERE are eggs and eggs. The egg of yesterday looks, feels, measures and weighs like the egg of last month, but there's a difference in another respect, and that difference is worth money. Its just so with laundry. The difference between good work and poor is slight to the unpracticed discernment, but it's a difference that counts every time. It's a difference that changes your laundry bill from an expense to an investment. We do good work—it will cost no more than poor work but its worth double the difference.
